

Early support intervention

Frau Hansen

...perhaps you have questions about the development of your child, because it

- has been born too early
- doesn't yet speak how it should for its age
- is learning too slow
- is behaving differently to other children
- is always unconcentrated and restless
- should be able to crawl or walk by now?

Together with the Frühförderung – Early support intervention, you can check if your child needs help with the following

- special therapeutic and curative education
- Physiotherapy
- Speechtherapy
- Ergotherapy

and how you can support your child in its individual development.

Rehabilitation counselling

Frau Weßling

Is your daily routine or maybe other hardships worrying you?

Do you feel exhausted and you need a break?

rehabilitation counsellor

- will inform you about the conditions for a rehabilitation
- will help you with the applications
- will tell you about further advice and after care options

Are you aware of this?

- Herr Mustermann has been a single parent for the last two years. Everyday life with his two small children is very exhausting. And then he has his job as well. He feels very stressed and tired.
- Frau Jedermann feels very torn back and forth between her three children. Her husband is working away for the whole week. Every morning she wakes up with a heavy headache. It can't carry on like this!

Educational Counselling

Herr Tinz

...offers you holistic help for children, teenagers, young adults and families with

- educational problems
- development- and behaviour difficulties
- separation and divorce

Maybe you know a situation like this:

- Little Lola (4) just doesn't want to listen to what her parents are saying, she is romping around, throwing herself on the floor. The parents don't know what to do, it's been going on for a long time. The parents are very worried.
- Rene (6) is still wetting himself daily and he is always scared. He can't go to sleep and wants to stay awake the whole night through. Who can help? The parents don't know what to do anymore.

Marriage- Family- and Life Counselling

Frau Diercks

...offers single people, couples and families professional support with difficult phases in their lives, for example:

- problems in a partnership
- family crisis
- separation, greaving or illness

Maybe you feel the same way:

- You are living together for some years now. The feelings for each other are still there, but you have constant arguments about the children and money. You both feel very stressed.
- You and your partner have slowly drifted apart. Separation seems like the only solution. How to carry on now?
